We obtain personal information about you for the purposes of processing securities transactions in accordance with your instructions, servicing your accounts, and satisfying legal and regulatory requirements. The personal information we typically obtain includes your name, address, age, and social security number.

We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your information. These safeguards are designed to comply with federal and state laws. We also share your information with third parties who need such information in order to process your transactions, service your accounts, or maintain your records. We do not share any information about our current and former customers with anyone except as required or permitted by law or with your consent. Nor do we share your personal information with our affiliates for their use in marketing their products and services, except with your consent and as allowed by law.

CUSTOMER IDENTIFICATION PROGRAM NOTICE. Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. Thus, when you open an account, we are required to ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask for a copy of your driver's license or other identifying documents. If you do not provide the required information, or if we are not able to verify your identity, we may be prohibited from opening or maintaining your account.
